

Area relinquishment and end of authority

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for area relinquishment, surrender and end of authority.

Note:

- You must lodge a report whenever you relinquish or surrender area from your petroleum and gas resource authority, or when your tenure ends.
- This includes partial or final relinquishment reports and end of tenure reports.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>